NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

SIGNATURE OF ACKNOWLEDGEMENT REQUIRED ON THIS STATEMENT

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW DR. SADOUGHI MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR HEALTHCARE INFORMATION AND HOW YOU CAN OBTAIN ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Dr. Sadoughi is required by law to maintain the privacy of your protected health information. This information consists of all records related to your health, including demographic information, either created by Dr. Sadoughi or received by

Dr. Sadoughi from other healthcare providers. We are required to provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your protected health information. These legal duties and privacy practices are described in this Notice. Dr. Sadoughi will abide by the terms of this Notice, or the Notice currently in effect at the time of the use or disclosure of your protected health information:

Dr. Sadoughi reserves the right to change the terms of this Notice and to make any new provisions effective for all protected health information that we maintain. Patients will be provided a copy of any revised Notices upon request. An individual may obtain a copy of the current notice from our office at any time.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION NOT REQUIRING YOUR CONSENT

Dr. Sadoughi may use and disclose your protected health information, without your written consent or authorization, for certain treatment, payment, and healthcare operations. There are certain restrictions on uses and disclosures of treatment records, which include registration and all other records concerning individuals who are receiving, or who at any time have received services for mental illness, developmental disabilities, alcoholism, or drug dependence. There are also restrictions on disclosing HIV test results.

Treatment may include:

- Providing, coordinating, or managing healthcare and related services by one or more healthcare providers.
- Consultations between healthcare providers concerning a patient.
- Referrals to other providers for treatment.
- Referrals to nursing homes, foster care homes, or home health agencies.

For example, Dr. Sadoughi may determine that you require the services of a specialist. In referring you to another doctor, Dr. Sadoughi may share or transfer your healthcare information to that doctor.

Payment activities may include:

- Activities undertaken by Dr. Sadoughi to obtain reimbursement for services provided to you.
- Determining your eligibility for benefits or health insurance coverage.
- Managing claims and contacting your insurance company regarding payment.
- Collection activities to obtain payment for services provided to you.
- Reviewing healthcare services and discussing with your insurance company the medical necessity of certain services or procedures, coverage under your health plan, appropriateness of care, or justification of charges.
- Obtaining pre-certification and pre-authorization of services to be provided to you.

For example, Dr. Sadoughi will submit claims to your insurance company on your behalf. This claim identifies you, your diagnosis, and the services provided to you.

Healthcare operations may include:

- Contacting healthcare providers and patients with information about treatment alternatives.
- Conducting quality assessment and improvement activities.
- Conducting outcomes evaluation and development of clinical guidelines.
- Protocol development, case management, or care coordination.
- Conducting or arranging for medical review, legal services, and auditing functions.

For example, Dr. Sadoughi may use your diagnosis, treatment, and outcome information to measure the quality of the services that we provide or assess the effectiveness of your treatment when compared to patients in similar situations.

Dr. Sadoughi may contact you, by telephone or mail, to provide appointment reminders. You must notify us if you do not wish to receive appointment reminders.

We may not disclose your protected health information to family members or friends who may be involved with your treatment or care without your written permission. Health information may be released without written permission to a parent, guardian, or legal custodian of a child; the guardian of an Incompetent adult the healthcare agent designated in an Incapacitated patient's healthcare power of attorney; or the personal representative or spouse of a deceased patient. There are additional situations when Dr. Sadoughi are permitted or required to use or disclose your protected health information without your consent or authorization.

Examples include the following:

- As permitted or required by law.

In certain circumstances we may be required to report individual health information to legal authorities, such as law enforcement officials, court officials, or government agencies. For example, we may have to report abuse, neglect, domestic violence, or certain physical injuries. We are required to report gunshot wounds or any other wound to law enforcement officials if there is reasonable cause to believe that the wound occurred as a result of a crime:

Mental health records may be disclosed to law enforcement authorities for the purpose of reporting an apparent crime on our premises.

- For public health activities.

We may release healthcare records, except for treatment records, to certain government agencies or public health authority authorized by law, upon receipt of written request from that agency. We are required to report positive HIV test results to the state epidemiologist. We may also disclose HIV test results to other providers or persons when there has been or will be risk of exposure.

This Notice is prepared in accordance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, 45 C.F.R. 164.520.

We may report to the state epidemiologist the name of any person known to have been significantly exposed to a patient who tests positive for HIV. We are required by law to report suspected child abuse and neglect and suspected abuse of an unborn child but cannot disclose HIV test results in connection with the reporting or prosecution of alleged abuse or neglect. We may release healthcare records, including treatment records and HIV test results, to the Food and Drug Administration when required by federal law. We may disclose healthcare records, except for HIV test results, for the purpose of reporting elder abuse or neglect, provided the subject of the abuse or neglect agrees, or if necessary, to prevent serious harm. Records may be released for the reporting of domestic violence if necessary, to protect the patient or community from imminent and substantial danger.

- For health oversight activities.

We may disclose healthcare records, including treatment records, in response to a written request by any federal or state governmental agency to perform legally authorized functions, such as management audits, financial audits, program monitoring and evaluation, and facility or individual licensure or certification. HIV test results may not be released to federal or state government agencies, without written permission, except to the state epidemiologist for surveillance, investigation, or to control communicable diseases.

- Judicial and Administrative Proceedings.

Patient healthcare records, including treatment records and HIV test results, may be disclosed pursuant to a lawful court order. A subpoena signed by a judge is sufficient to permit disclosure of all healthcare records except for HIV test results.

- For activities related to death.

We may disclose patient healthcare records, except for treatment records, to a coroner or medical examiner for the purpose of completing a medical certificate or investigating a death. HIV test results may be disclosed under certain circumstances.

- For research.

Under certain circumstances, and only after a special approval process, we may use and disclose your health information to help conduct research.

- To avoid a serious threat to health or safety.

We may report a patient's name and other relevant data to the Department of Transportation if it is believed the patient's vision or physical or mental condition affects the patient's ability to exercise reasonable or ordinary control over a motor vehicle. Healthcare information, including treatment records and HIV test results, may be disclosed where disclosure is necessary to protect the patient or community from imminent and substantial danger.

- For worker's compensation.

We may disclose your health information to the extent such records are reasonably related to any injury for which workers compensation is claimed.

Dr. Sadoughi will not make any other use or disclosure of your protected health information without your written authorization. You may revoke such authorization at any time, except to the extent that Dr. Sadoughi has acted in reliance thereon. Any revocation must be in writing.

OFFICE POLICY TO ROUTINELY DOCUMENT PATIENT CARE UTILIZING PHOTOGRAPHY

“I understand that photographs, videotapes, digital, or other images may be recorded to document my care, and I consent to this. I understand that Chevy Chase Foot & Ankle LLC will retain ownership rights to these photographs, videotapes, digital, or other images, but that I will be allowed access to view them or obtain copies. I understand that these images will be stored in a secure manner that will protect my privacy and that they will be kept for the time period required by law or outlined in Chevy Chase Foot & Ankle LLC's policy. Images that identify me will be released and/or used outside the institution only upon written authorization from me or my legal representative.”

YOUR RIGHT REGARDING YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

You are permitted to request that restrictions be placed on certain uses or disclosures of your protected health information by Dr. Sadoughi to carry out treatment, payment, or healthcare operations. You must request such a restriction in writing. We are not required to agree to your request, but if we do agree, we must adhere to the restriction, except when your protected health information is needed in an emergency treatment situation. In this event, information may be disclosed only to healthcare providers treating you. Also, a restriction would not apply when we are required by law to disclose certain healthcare information.

You have the right to review and/or obtain a copy of your healthcare records, with the exception of psychotherapy notes, or information compiled for use (or in anticipation for use) in a civil, criminal, or administrative action or proceeding. Dr. Sadoughi may deny any access under other circumstances, in which case you have the right to have such a denial reviewed. We may charge a reasonable fee for copying your records.

You may request that Dr. Sadoughi send protected health information, including billing information, to you by alternative means or to alternative locations. You may also request that Dr. Sadoughi not send information to a address or location or contact you at a specific location, perhaps your place of employment. This request must be submitted in writing. We will accommodate reasonable request by you.

You have the right to request that Dr. Sadoughi amend portions of your healthcare records if such information is maintained by us. You must submit this request in writing, and under certain circumstances the request may be denied.

You may request to receive an accounting of the disclosures of your protected health information made by Dr. Sadoughi for the six years prior to the date of the request, beginning with disclosures made after April 14, 2003. We are not required, however, to record disclosures we make pursuant to a signed consent or authorization.

You may request and receive a paper copy of the Notice, if you had previously received or agreed to receive the Notice electronically.

Any person or patient may file a complaint with Dr. Sadoughi and/or the Secretary of Health and Human Services if they believe their privacy rights have been violated.
